Troutman Agrees to Dismiss Shareholder Derivative Lawsuit Against Alexanders

FORT MYERS, Fla., April 2, 2012 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Alico, Inc. (Nasdaq:ALCO - News) ("Alico"), a land management company, today announced the settlement of the shareholder derivative action complaint. The shareholder derivative action complaint was originally filed by Baxter Troutman ("Troutman") against John R. Alexander, Chairman of the Board of Directors and JD Alexander, Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer, (the "Alexanders") which also named Alico as a nominal defendant. The settlement agreement (the "Agreement") contains the following provisions:

- The Agreement and its terms and conditions are subject to approval by the Circuit Court of the 10th Judicial Circuit in Polk County, FL. A hearing to consider approval is scheduled for May 4, 2012 at 2:45 p.m.
- Troutman shall file a notice of voluntary dismissal of the civil action against the Alexanders with prejudice. There were no inducements, promises or representations.
- Troutman and the Alexanders mutually release and discharge each other from all claims, rights, actions, obligations, liability or responsibility arising out of the commencement and prosecution of the civil action, except for any claims Alico may have against Troutman to be subrogated to the rights of the Alexanders to seek recovery of attorney fees and costs incurred in their defense.
