Lois Marino Named Executive Director For The BBX Capital Foundation

FORT LAUDERDALE, Florida – December 4, 2013 – BBX Capital Corporation (“BBX Capital”) (NYSE: BBX), announced today that Lois Marino has been named Executive Director for the BBX Capital Foundation, formerly known as the BankAtlantic Foundation. She previously served as the company’s Community Relations Manager.

“It is a pleasure to announce Lois’s new responsibilities,” said Jarett Levan, President of BBX Capital. “She is passionate about corporate responsibility, is a proven leader, and possesses an outstanding combination of for profit and non-profit business experience. We know she will guide the Foundation in the right direction, and help many people throughout South Florida.”

Marino is a 29-year veteran of the banking industry and has a long history of working with non-profits. As Assistant Vice President and Manager of the Office of “WOW!” for BankAtlantic, she spearheaded the company’s Kid Power Program, an initiative that provided children with educational information about banking and financial management. In 2003, her curriculum for financial literacy for elementary schools was approved by the Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach County school boards. She also oversaw BankAtlantic’s SmARTS Program, an award-winning program which provided access to the arts for the elementary school children of Dade and Broward counties.

Marino is also the Program Coordinator for Business for the Arts of Broward and she is a board member for Junior Achievement of South Florida and the Embrace Music Foundation. Marino has been recognized for her dedication and commitment to the community and was honored by the Alzheimer Family Center in 2011 and earlier this year she was awarded the distinction as one of “100 Outstanding Women of Broward County.”

The BBX Capital Foundation was created in 1994 as a 501(c)3 corporate foundation, then named the BankAtlantic Foundation. In the past 20 years, the Foundation has awarded more than $17 million to charitable organizations throughout the state of Florida.
