InfuSystem Holdings, Inc. Names Janet Skonieczny Chief Operating Officer

MADISON HEIGHTS, Mich.-- The Board of Directors of InfuSystem Holdings, Inc. (NYSE MKT: INFU) (“InfuSystem” or the “Company”), the leading national provider of infusion pumps and related services for the U.S. healthcare industry, today announced that Janet Skonieczny, the Company’s Vice President of Operations and Corporate Compliance Officer since 2007, has been named Chief Operating Officer, effective immediately. She will report directly to InfuSystem’s Interim Chief Executive Officer, Dilip Singh.

In this new corporate role, Ms. Skonieczny is responsible for the following: Payor Relationship Management, including CMS Competitive Bidding; Billing and Claims Management; Supply Chain Management; Customer Service and Clinical Support; Inventory and Asset Management; Warehousing/Logistics and Regulatory Issues. Additionally, all of the Company’s Operational functions for pump sales and rentals in Olathe, KS and Madison Heights, MI will report directly to her.

Ms. Skonieczny has also served as Vice President of Operations of InfuSystem, Inc., the Company’s wholly-owned subsidiary, since 1998. She originally joined InfuSystem and its predecessor company, Venture Medical, in 1988.

“Jan Skonieczny is a seasoned and experienced operational healthcare executive who is well prepared to assist the leadership team with executing the Company’s strategic vision and operational plans,” said Interim CEO Dilip Singh. “She is not only familiar with the complexity of the ever-evolving healthcare marketplace that we serve, but also understands the specific needs of payors, health care providers, and patients. This is what distinguishes InfuSystem from all of its competitors and helps make us the leading provider in the Infusion Pump Service industry.
