something more

From our Pastor...

Winter / Spring 2011

Coming March 27th

Everyone is invited to the Church-Wide FBC Pompano Family Picnic on Sunday, March 27th. There will be music, children's activities, great fellowship and lots of food. More details will be available the beginning of March.

A little boy was waiting on his mother to come out of a store. As he waited, a man walking by asked, "Son, can you tell me where the post office is?" The little boy replied, "Sure, just go straight down the street a couple of blocks and turn to your right." The man thanked the boy graciously and said, "Hey, I'm the new preacher in town, and I'd like to invite you and your family to come to church on Sunday. I'll share with you how to get to Heaven." The little boy replied with a chuckle, "Awww come on—you don't even know how to get to the post office."

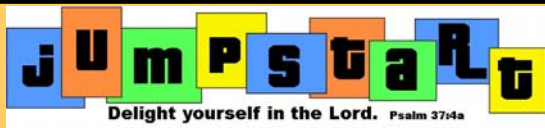

I have to admit that more than once my assistant has had to remind me how to get to the Pompano Post Office. I may not always be clear on that—but I do know how to get to Heaven from Pompano. It is through a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. And over the next few weeks I will be sharing a series of messages about Heaven. The most important thing you can know about Heaven though is that you must be born again to enter the Kingdom of Heaven. I hope you will listen carefully to what I will teach about Heaven from God's Word and even more so I hope you will respond prayerfully to the invitation to give your heart and life to Jesus so that one day you may go to Heaven. If you have never done so, may it be so!

Devotedly your Servant,

Pastor Ron

"Though None Go with Me". It's 1951 and America is caught in the Korean War, but a world away in Three Rivers, Elizabeth Leroy is caught in her own personal struggle. The events that follow alter Elizabeth's life forever and truly test not only her faith and inner strength but her resilience as well. Bring your lawn chair, your mom, sisters, neighbors, co-workers, and a blanket (if it's cold) and meet us on the grassy lot across the street from the worship center at 7:00 pm.
