

Liberator Medical Holdings, Inc.

Governance and Nominating Committee Charter

As Adopted August 19, 2010

Role

The Governance and Nominating Committee's role is to determine the slate of director nominees for election to the Board of Directors of Liberator Medical Holdings, Inc. (the "Company"), to identify and recommend candidates to fill vacancies occurring between annual shareholder meetings, to review, evaluate and recommend changes to the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, and to review the Company's policies and programs that relate to matters of corporate citizenship, including public issues of significance to the Company and its stakeholders.

Membership

The Committee shall consist of no fewer than three (3) members of the Board, all of whom shall each have been determined by the Board to be "independent" under the rules of the SEC and NYSE Amex, or, alternatively, if the members of the Committee are not all independent, then the Committee shall be comprised of a majority of the Board's independent directors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in accordance with NYSE Amex Rules Section 806, one director who is not independent under NYSE Amex Rules Section 803A may be a member of the Committee if the Board determines, under exceptional and limited circumstances, determines that membership on the committee is required by the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, and disclosure is made in the Company's proxy statement or Annual report on Form 10-K. No member of the Committee may (except in his or her capacity as a member of the Committee, the Board of any other Board committee) receive, directly or indirectly, any consulting, advisory or other compensatory fee from the Company, other than fixed amounts of compensation under a retirement plan (including deferred compensation) for prior service with the Company (provided that such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service).

Members shall be appointed by the Board, shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and for such term or terms as the Board may determine, and may be removed by the Board at any time with or without cause.

Operations

The Committee meets at least twice a year. The Committee shall meet periodically in executive session without Company management present. Additional meetings may occur as the Committee or its chair deems advisable. The Committee will cause to be kept adequate minutes of its proceedings, and will report on its actions and activities at the next quarterly meeting of the Board. Committee members will be furnished with copies of the minutes of each meeting and any action taken by unanimous consent. The Committee is governed by the same rules regarding meetings (including meetings by conference telephone or similar communications equipment), action without meetings, notice, waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements as are applicable to the Board. The Committee is authorized and empowered to adopt its own rules of procedure not inconsistent with (a) any provision of this Charter, (b) any provisions of the Bylaws of the Company, or (c) the laws of the State of Nevada.

Authority

The Company will provide the Committee with the resources necessary to discharge its duties and responsibilities. The Committee has sole authority to retain and terminate outside counsel, any search firm used to identify director candidates, or other experts or consultants, as it deems appropriate, including sole authority to approve the firms' fees and other retention terms. Any communications between the Committee and legal counsel in the course of obtaining legal advice will be considered privileged communications of the Company and the Committee will take all necessary steps to preserve the privileged nature of those communications.

The Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees and may delegate authority to one or more designated members of the Committee.

Responsibilities

Subject to the provisions of the Corporate Governance Guidelines, the principal responsibilities and functions of the Governance and Nominating Committee are as follows:

1. Annually evaluate and report to the Board on the performance and effectiveness of the Board to facilitate the directors fulfilling their responsibilities in a manner that serves the interests of the Company's shareholders.
2. Annually present to the Board a list of individuals recommended for nomination for election to the Board at the annual meeting of shareholders, and for appointment to the committees of the Board (including this Committee). Review and consider shareholder recommended candidates for nomination to the Board.
3. Before recommending an incumbent, replacement or additional director, review his or her qualifications, including capability, availability to serve, conflicts of interest, and other relevant factors.

4. Assist in identifying, interviewing and recruiting candidates for the Board.
5. Annually review the composition of each committee and present recommendations for committee memberships to the Board as needed.
6. Develop and periodically review and recommend to the Board appropriate revisions to the Company's corporate governance framework, including its Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws, Code of Conduct and Ethics, and Corporate Governance Guidelines.
7. Monitor compliance with the Corporate Governance Guidelines.
8. Regularly review and make recommendations to the Board about changes to the charter of the Governance and Nominating Committee.
9. Regularly review and make recommendations about changes to the charters of other Board committees after consultation with the respective committee chairs.
10. Obtain or perform an annual evaluation of the Committee's performance and make applicable recommendations.
